

INDEX

---

A

Autobiography of Col. Richard Malcolm Johnston, 5—becomes an author, 5—method of writing, 6—favorite characters, 8—characteristics of neighborhood where born, 9—business experiences as an author, 12—enters government service, 13—men of his native region, 17—incidents and anecdotes, 19—leading lawyers, 22—Robert Toombs, 23—Toombs after the war, 29—beginning of acquaintance with Stephens, 203—as a lawyer, 205—rise of the Soil party, 206—last hope of peace blighted at Charleston, 208—conversation with Stephens of May, 1860, 209—another during same month, 211—he advocates buying of cotton, 213—some criticisms of President Davis, 215—a speech at Sparta in 1863, 217—object of Fortress Monroe Conference, 218—President Lincoln's remarks, 220—conversation of December 4, 1866, 222—his last years in Congress, 223—call upon General Grant, 224—his great generosity, 226.

B

Baird, Wm., article on imperialism, 135.

Blackstone's Commentaries, Curiosities of, 267.

C

Concerning Recollections of a Naval Life (reviewed), 352—quoting Lieutenant Eggleston, 352—letters refuting statement, 352—a vindication, 353.

Congress, The Confederate, 97.

Confederate Congress, The, 97—organization of provisional Congress and personnel, 97—Constitution for permanent government, 98—extracts from same, 99—appointment of various commissioners, 102—Mason and Slidell, 103—election of Mr. Davis and first message, 105—an amusing incident, 105—second session, 107—third session, 107—bill to organize Supreme Court, 108—last session, 110—correction of certain misapprehensions, 111.

Consolidation and Monopoly, Economic, 33.

Curiosities of Blackstone's Commentaries, 267—study of law, 268—deodands, 270—ordeal, wager of battle and wager of law, 272—forestalling regrating, and engrossing, 276—livery of seisin, 277—court of dusty feet, 278—court of regard, 279—law-Latin, 279—an interesting incident, 282—oaths, 284—criminal law, 285—trial by jury, 296—height of purity of English law, 297.

D

Dixon, Susan Bullitt, article reviewing William Wirt Henry's 'Patrick Henry's Life: Correspondence and Speeches,' 228.

Index

E

Economic Consolidation and Monopoly, 33—new phase of, 33—statistical study of, 34—standpoint for considering, 35—industrial revolutions, 36—expansion of markets, 37—unified production, 38—concentration of business, 39—place utilities, 39, 44, 68—transportation, how related to competition, 37, 39—inter-State commerce, advantages in, 40—regulation of, 41, 65—place differentials in transportation, 41, 68—discriminative freight rates, 42—railway consolidation, 44—industrial consolidations, 46—legal status of, 47, 75, 79—related to competition and overproduction, 47—inducements to concentration and obstacles to monopoly, 49—sources of monopoly, 52—customs tariffs, 53—patents, trade-marks, copyrights, 54—franchises, economic status of, 56, 61—increasing returns, law of, 57—economies of consolidation, concentration, condensation, 58—maximum returns, law of, 62—public works, economic status of, 63—monopoly prices, 64—competitive prices, 65—railway pooling, 66—bodies corporate, classes of, 67—social relations of transportation enterprises and rates, 68—of other prices and combinations, 69, 71—monopolies, old and new, 70—competition, potential, 52, 71—psychology of agitation against consolidations, 72, 80—regulation of economic affairs, 76—congressional authority, 77—proposed amendments relative to, 81—regulation of monopoly, 79—supervision of corporate enterprises, 83—economic self-government, 84—political limits to, 85—government, weakness of new, 86—industrial evolution, Anglo-Saxon freedom of, 87—proposed violent repression of, 89—individualism, principles of, 91—social equality, principles of, 93—democracy, tendency of social economics under, 94—competition, need of controlling, 96.

Eggleston, J. R., article reviewing John McIntosh Kell's 'Recollections of a Naval Life,' 113.

Environment, Heredity and, 246.

F

Farquhar, Edward, article on elements of unity in the Homeric poems (Part II), 162.

—, article on the national element in the Psalms, 300.

G

Goode, Hon. John, article on Confederate Congress, 97.

H

Henry, Patrick, 228—his greatness, 228—pleads cause against the 'Parsons,' 229—Stamp Act, 230—repeal of, 233—first question before Congress, 236—'give me liberty or give me death!' 237—struggle for amendments, 239—resumes practice of law, 242—candidate for House of Delegates, 244—appointed one of ministers to France, 244—'his fame his best epitaph,' 245.

Henry, William Wirt, his 'Patrick Henry: Life, Correspondence and Speeches' (reviewed), 228.

Heredity and Environment, 246—great stress always laid on value of good blood, 247—almost universal belief in heredity, 249—Galton's works, 250—importance of environment, 253—studies of De Candolle, 254—recent writings on heredity, 257—causes that produce remarkable men, 259.

Index

Homeric Poems, Elements of Unity in the (Part II), 162—'Sayce's Philology,' 163—questions of dialects, 168—of writing or oral transmission, 170—of the gods in 'Iliad' and 'Odyssey,' 172—of other differences between the two poems, 175—identities, 177—character of Homer, 183.

I

Imperialism, 135—extracts from Calhoun and Webster, 135—first instance of expansion, 137—Louisiana purchase, 137—Florida, 138—annexation of Texas, 138—Alaska, 139—Jefferson's purpose, 141—drifting from faith of founders, 142—burden of proof, 144—Patrick Henry and Edmund Burke, 146—Constitution and imperialism cannot flourish together, 151—evils of reversal of policy, 153—as to withdrawal of flag, 159.

Ion, Theodore, P., article on the literature of the Ottomans, 314.

J

Johnston, Autobiography of Col. Richard Malcolm, 5.

K

Kell, John McIntosh, his 'Recollections of a Naval Life' (reviewed), 113.

L

Last Half Century, The Political Spirit of the, 340.

Literature of the Ottomans, 314—Turks indifferent to language of Plato, 315—strenuous efforts for progress of literature, 317—diffusion of learning very great under Mahomet II., 320—Suleiman the great, 323—'the Sultan of Poets,' 324—the end of the seventeenth century, 327—eighteenth century, 328.

M

Marr, Janey Barron Hope, article taking exception to statement made in 'Recollections of a Naval Life' (reviewed), 352.

Money, The Science of: A Review, 184.

Monopoly, Economic Consolidation and, 33.

N

National Element in the Psalms, The, 300—supreme and classic utterance of piety of man, 301—prevailing national element, 304—as to puzzling expressions, 307—personal terms, 308—some gloriously cosmopolitan, 309—one that for spiritual beauty and sweetness may challenge the world, 311.

Naval Life, Recollections of a, 113.

O

Ottomans, Literature of the, 314.

Index

P

Patrick Henry, 228.

Psalms, The National Element in the, 300.

Political Spirit of the Last Half Century, The, 340—an analytical period, 340—conditions before middle of century, 341—force of nationalism, 343—liberalism in Great Britain, 344—climax of nationalism, 345—expansion, 347—universal empire 349—forebodings of close of century, 351.

Profession of Teaching, The, 331—a gift, 331—demands are exacting, 333—atmosphere of teaching is faith, 334—the three phases of teaching, 336—the Great Teacher, 337—the 'call' to teach, 339.

R

Recollections of a Naval Life, 113—appointment of John McIntosh Kell, 113—first cruise, 114—transition from sail to steam, 114—at Annapolis, 117—first meeting with Semmes, 118—an incident at Nankin, 118—in Japan, 121—at Pensacola, 124—rumblings of war, 125—cruises of the Sumter, 126—description of the Alabama, 128—her first prize, 128—subsequent happenings, 129—her end, 132—Kell is promoted, 133.

Reinsch, Paul S., article on the political spirit of the last half century, 340.

Robinson, Philip A., his 'Coin, Currency and Commerce' (reviewed), 184.

——, article on economic consolidation and monopoly, 33.

S

Science of Money, The: A Review, 184—division of the work, 184—natural and historical evolution of moneys, 185—its fundamental qualifications, 186—representative and credit money, 189—speculative opportunities afforded by cheap money, 190—an international ratio, 193—a commercial ratio, 194—gold standard does not involve gold monometallism, 197.

Stuart, Albert R., article on the curiosities of Blackstone's Commentaries, 267.

Super, Charles W., article on heredity and environment, 246.

T

Teaching, The Profession of, 331.

'Trusts,' Industrial, article on, 33.

U

Unity, Elements of, in the Homeric Poems, 162.

V

Vann, Livingston, article on the science of money, reviewing Philip A. Robinson's 'Coin, Currency and Commerce,' 184.

W

Wilbur, William Allen, article on the profession of teaching, 331.

